

HUSBAND OBJECTS NEWLANDS TO OPERATION ATTACKS PARTY

Wife Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Des Moines, Iowa.—"Four years ago I was very sick and my life was nearly spent. The doctors stated that I would never get well without an operation and that without it I would not live one year. My husband objected to any operation and got me some of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took it and commenced to get better and am now well, am stout and able to do my own housework. I can recommend the Vegetable Compound to any woman who is sick and run down as a wonderful strength and health restorer. My husband says I would have been in my grave ere this if it had not been for your Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. BLANCHIE JEFFERSON, 703 Lyon St., Des Moines, Iowa.

Before submitting to a surgical operation it is wise to try to build up the female system and cure its derangements with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; it has saved many women from surgical operations.

MADE AN OFFICER IN BRITISH ARMY

Nathaniel Francis Among Many Americans to Join Canadian Expeditionary Force.

Toronto, Ont., Jan. 12.—Americans of all classes are enlisting here in the 97th overseas battalion of the Canadian expeditionary force, known as the "American Legion." One of these is Nathaniel Francis of Boston. During the first few days of enlistment Francis called: "I'll be back as soon as I get my business fixed up," he said, as he went away, leaving his address in Boston. It was on one of Boston's finest residential streets. The officers smiled and said: "He's putting one over."

A few days later in walked Francis and was attested. He went in as a private. He is now Sergeant Francis.

Francis was employed by the Milton Shoe company, 135 Lincoln street, Boston, for a short time up until two months ago, when he left for New York. At the Milton Shoe company office it was said that Francis spent most of his time in Washington. Nobody at that office has heard from him since he left there two months ago.

At Submarine Base.

New London, Conn., Jan. 12.—A naval board of inquiry began an investigation to determine definitely the cause of the fire Monday night at the United States submarine base on the Thames river, with a loss of $40,000, said to include seven torpedoes. It is believed that the fire may have started from an overheated stove.

Senator Criticises Banking and Tariff Reforms

LEGISLATION TOO RADICAL

Wilson the Party's Hope in the Next Election—He Is Praised

Washington, D. C., Jan. 12.—Senator Newlands of Nevada, Democrat, attacked his party's record in the Senate yesterday, delivering a long prepared speech in which he criticised the tariff and banking reforms—the chief legislative achievements of the Wilson administration. He declared that because there had been industrial and commercial depression coterminous with Democratic control of legislation, the party would be in danger of defeat at the next presidential election unless the European war continued and made the president's "sagacious and firm" handling of foreign affairs the overshadowing issue.

Although he characterized the general trend of Democratic legislation as commendable, the senator asserted that the party was too radical, and expressed the conviction that "No special party can hope to remain in power which adopts radical instead of evolutionary methods of reform."

Danger of a Democratic defeat in the Congressional elections of 1914, he said, was "averted only by the European war, which brought into sudden contrast the president's policy of 'watchful waiting' regarding Mexico, with the mad haste of the European nations as they rushed into war, which made that policy as popular as it had theretofore been unpopular."

"The realization that similar prudence would keep us out of European complications," he added, "saved the party at the last election from the defeat which would have surely come as the result of the general prostration of business, popularly attributed to our economic legislation."

"It would not do to charge this to the European war, first, because that war, though injurious to our production and trade in its inception, has since become a stimulant to production and export; and second, because the commencement of this depression antedates the European war and was contemporaneous with our legislation regarding the tariff, banking and trade."

"We are about to face a united Republican party, chastened by adversity and eager to persuade, and the question is whether the Democratic party, having done much under this administration in the interest of genuine reform, is again to be thrown out of power and deprived of the opportunity of continued usefulness simply because an intervening period of depression subjects us again to the charge of 'Democratic hard times' with its accompanying loss of votes."

"It is safe to say that the manufacturing, the banking and the large corporate interests are hostile to the Democratic party and that their employees are also preparing to throw their weight against it simply because its administration has not brought good times, but on the contrary has, in their judgment, brought bad times."

"Regarding the tariff, my view was that our undertaking was not to immediately adopt a theoretically correct tariff system, but simply to climb gradually down from the protective heights upon which the Republican party had placed the manufacturing interests of the country—not to jump down at the risk of destruction, but to climb down slowly and laboriously with a view to preserving, as far as practicable, every American industry and injuring none."

"When we came to a practical realization of what we had promised by legislation we were inclined, I thought, to go too fast and too far."

"The effect of the tariff legislation was what I feared it would be. The tying up of production in this country was the result not of a malicious effort of the manufacturers to teach the country a lesson, but of the caution and timidity which can in many cases be proved to be without reason, but which nevertheless always exist under like conditions."

"So also with the banking legislation. Instead of providing some simple method for mobilizing the banking reserves of state and national banks under the control of a non-partisan board or commission resembling the interstate commerce commission, which would gradually, through powers of investigation, publicity, correction and recommendation to Congress, work out further reforms, we were intent upon legislation which alarmed the banks by the largeness of our proposals."

"We failed to make the reserve board non-partisan, tied to it an executive department through the membership of the secretary of the treasury and the comptroller, subjected the member banks to the investigating and correctional powers of a single partisan comptroller instead of the composite judgment of a quasi-judicial non-partisan board, and exacted additional and unnecessary capital from member banks, thus organizing the reserve associations into profit-making institutions, a purpose entirely foreign to their nature as protective organizations. The result is that the union of banks is incomplete, the state half being outside and the national half inside the reserve organization, with the prospect that those outside will remain so unless the law is modified."

"I think it would be wise to shape the way for legislation during the next session by making the reserve board non-partisan, merging the comptroller's office with all the powers and duties in the reserve board and doing away with all capital requirements beyond the percentage of reserves of member banks now required."

Senator Newlands said that while there was no need of hysteria upon the subject of national defense, he favored a national scheme of preparedness.

The Most Wonderful Endorsement Ever Given Any Product

John Philip Sousa and his famous Band have circled the globe on numerous tours and inspired millions of people in many lands with their soul-stirring, inimitable music.

Mr. Sousa has been a smoker of Tuxedo Tobacco for years. Recently, at the Panama-Pacific Exposition, a newspaper representative made the discovery that every member of Sousa's Band is also a Tuxedo smoker!

Whereupon, the following endorsement of Tuxedo was gladly given and signed by Mr. Sousa and the sixty-six members of his Band. Read it—as sure-fire and convincing as a Sousa March:

"All the vim, energy and enthusiasm we put into the playing of the 'Stars and Stripes Forever' we find in the steady use of TUXEDO."

INDICTED PLOTTER DROPS FROM SIGHT

Paul Koenig, Under $50,000 Bail in Welland Canal Conspiracy, Sought in Bribing of Bank Clerk for Wall Street Secrets.

New York, Jan. 12.—The police searched yesterday for Paul Koenig, the so-called chief of the Hamburg-American line secret service, who is at liberty under $50,000 bail on a federal indictment charging conspiracy to blow up the Welland canal.

A warrant for Koenig's arrest was issued Monday by a magistrate, charging him with corruptly influencing Frederick Schindler, formerly a clerk in the National City bank, to deliver letters and telegrams to Koenig. Schindler was arrested and released on bail some time ago.

The new charge against Koenig is a misdemeanor, which carries a maximum penalty of three years in the penitentiary. The police say they were unable to find Koenig at a hotel where he was supposed to be living.

The federal grand jury continued yesterday its investigation of alleged alien plots. It is said only the edges of the conspiracy have as yet been touched by federal authorities. Other indictments may be returned against persons whose names have not been publicly mentioned in connection with the alleged conspiracies.

IF YOU WORRY, READ THIS

Worry never brought any good to anybody. But, you say, "I don't worry because I want to, I worry because I can't help it." Or, "I worry because I have so much to worry about."

We all have our troubles and worry, of course, makes matters worse. The patient generally recognizes this fact without being influenced in any way by it.

The doctor who could meet this nervous condition and cure it would be the most popular medical man alive. But he can't do it because the form of nervousness known as neurasthenia, of which worry is a characteristic symptom, must be cured by the patient himself. That is why you should write today for the book "Diseases of the Nervous System" and read the chapter on "Neurasthenia." So many people have read it and written back, "This hits my case exactly. I am giving the treatment a trial and being benefited," that the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., has had a list of these books printed and will send you a copy free on request. Ask for a list book also if your stomach is off.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a non-alcoholic tonic, particularly suited for nervous, neurasthenic people. Your druggist sells them or they will be mailed postpaid on receipt of price, 50 cents per box, six boxes for $2.50.

T. R. ATTACKS WILSON POLICY

Facing World Crisis, Nation Has Fallen Far Short of Duty to Own People

PREPAREDNESS TO PROTECT OUR RIGHTS

"Must Do Justice to Our People at Home," He Asserts

Chicago, Jan. 12.—Theodore Roosevelt sent a stinging arraignment of President Wilson's foreign policy to the Progressive national committee, which met in the Congress hotel yesterday with the avowed purpose of choosing Chicago as the place and June 7 as the time for the national convention.

The attack of the former president upon the present president came in the form of a telegram which, according to Chairman George W. Perkins, was read to the national committee shortly after they assembled in the Florentine room at 11 o'clock yesterday forenoon. The message from Colonel Roosevelt follows:

"I send you my hearty greetings. We are a country are facing a great world crisis, in which for the last 18 months this nation has fallen far short of its duty both to its own people and to the law-abiding and justice-loving nations of mankind.

"There is a crying need that we shall cast aside all purely partisan considerations and disregard all but the vital issues affecting the national life, and shall strive wholeheartedly for a sound Americanism, which shall insist that every man who is within our borders shall be an American and nothing else."

"We must do justice to our people at home; we must insist that they have justice when abroad."

"We must insist on the most thorough-going preparedness to protect our rights against all possible attacks by any aggressors. Such preparedness is the best guarantee of any honorable peace."

"We must ever remember that there cannot be such preparedness in things material unless there is also that preparedness of soul and spirit which alone renders a nation fit to perform its high and difficult duties in national and international life."

"Theodore Roosevelt."

In his message to the committee, Governor Hiram W. Johnson of California said:

"Progressivism has won a great victory. It has gripped the minds of individual voters, has quickened the national conscience, and has been indelibly impressed upon every forward-looking stage."

"The men and the party unafraid have exercised a most wholesome influence on the nation's political life. All candidates and all parties now vehemently protest they are progressive, and progressivism thus has partly done its work."

The telegram from former Senator Albert J. Beveridge said:

"Hearty greetings. The Progressive party stands for principles which mean national safety, permanent business prosperity, better living for the masses, and orderly control by the people of their own government."

"These principles, together with a neutrality like that which Washington first established without partiality to any nation, and with equal friendship for all countries, constitute a programme of national well-being, for which Americans can fight with a clean conscience."

LINDBERGH OPENS FILIBUSTER.

Resolution Proposing This Introduced in Rules Amended to Bring Bills Out.

Washington, Jan. 12.—Representative Lindbergh's fight to amend the House rules so a bill may be brought out of committee after a reasonable time on the request of its author, took the form of a filibuster yesterday and he objected to any proceedings which went on by unanimous consent when it was "not in the general interests." His action served to shut out private legislation and he announced his intention to continue.

NO GAG, SAYS DANIELS.

Secretary Answers the Charges Made by Britton.

Washington, Jan. 12.—Secretary Daniels has written Representative Britton, in reply to the latter's charges that the secretary would try to prevent free expression of naval officers' views before the House naval committee, that "any officer, civil employee or enlisted man in the navy" would be ordered before committee on its request.

The report of Admiral Fletcher, covering operations of the Atlantic fleet for the past year, and the recent war games, will be sent to the Senate as has been requested. Such reports have not heretofore been made public, but no naval secrets would be disclosed in the present case, the secretary said.

NEW JUDGES FOR OLD.

Cummins Introduces Resolution for Investigation.

Washington, Jan. 12.—Senator Cummins, Republican, introduced a resolution yesterday to direct the judiciary committee to investigate and report on the number of federal judges who cannot properly discharge their duties and recommend how they may be supplanted.
